1866 LINCOLN GOLD PATTERN

- 2315 Obverse 1866, bust Lincoln with beard, "God and Our Country," reverse III in wreath with star at top, size of $3 and struck in gold. The reverse die is similar to that used on several patterns but the obverse does not appear on any other pattern. The first specimen we know of appeared in "The Royal Sale" March 1948 cataloged by Mr. Mehl, and realized $360. From what information we could gather, there are only three or four specimens known and they all came from the late Mr. B. G. Johnson who claimed they were patterns. This coin has created considerable controversy as to whether it is a pattern and if so, whether it was struck inside or outside of the mint.

14th CENTURY CHINESE NOTE

- 2848 When Marco Polo returned from visiting China in the 13th century he reported that one of the curious customs of the people there was the use of paper notes as money. He described the notes as being made from the bark of Mulberry tree and stamped in a printing press. This note was issued by the Ming Emperor Tsai Tsu during the period of Hong Wu, 1368 to 1399 A. D. Its value is represented by an illustration of ten strings of cash in the center of the note. The accompanying Chinese inscriptions, when translated, read "Great Ming General Circulation Treasury Note, to be Current Under the Heavens." At the bottom of the note is curt warning "Counterfeiters Will Be Decapitated." This note was found in a Chinese Temple, fine, 9x13 inches. Valued by owner at $100.
